Etiquette

- Course must be played in sequential order unless directed by the golf shop.
- All players who stop for any reason after playing nine holes must occupy the next tee before the following players arrive at the tee.
 - Players must enter and leave bunkers at the nearest level point. Smooth sand over with a rake before leaving. All rakes should be left in the bunker. Repair all ball marks on the greens. Replace all divots. - Golf staff acting as Rangers may be on duty to help regulate play and enforce regulations. These Rangers have full authority on the golf course to enforce all rules and pace of play.
- A round of golf at WPCC should be completed in 4 hours and 15 minutes or less. Failure to maintain pace of play may result in restricted availability of tee times.
- Golfers must keep pace with the groups ahead of them. A group should finish no more than 12 minutes behind the groups immediately ahead of them. - Play without due delay - Play "Ready Golf" when it is appropriate. - If a hole opens between your group and the group ahead of you, and the group behind you is waiting to play, it is proper to have the group behind play through.
- When a group has been signaled to play through, those players signaling should stand aside, let them play and then resume play when they are out of range.
- Any comments or suggestions by members regarding such rules and regulations should be made in writing to the General Manager. - Twosomes should not expect to play through foursomes and should not exert any pressure on the groups ahead. Foursomes shall have the right of way unless they fail to keep up their pace of play. Twosomes and singles will be grouped with other players, if available, at the discretion of the Golf Staff.
- The Golf Professional may adjust any rule to avoid hardship or facilitate enjoyment of the Club's facilities where they find no materially adverse effect will result to other members. Golf Dress Code Appropriate golf attire is required for all players. Members are expected to ensure that their family members and guests adhere to the dress code: - Pants and slacks or Bermuda style shorts, for men, and Bermuda shorts, skorts and skirts for women are all considered appropriate dress on the course.
